

CSNA: Classification Society of North America / Membership Form

The Journal of Classification is published by Springer, under the auspices of CSNA. CSNA also publishes the bibliographic Classification Literature Automated Search Service; it includes several out-of-print classification-classic books. The CSNA Newsletter is posted periodically to the Web. CSNA is a member of IFCS, the International Federation of Classification Societies; the IFCS Newsletter is e-mailed and later posted to the Web.

Benefits of CSNA membership include:

- A subscription to the Journal of Classification
- bibliographic Classification Literature Automated Search Service CD
- 20% discount on all Springer books
- 20% discount on World Scientific Publishing Company books (thru' 31-Dec-2009)
- Online access to all back issues of the Journal of Classification
- Discount registration fees at the annual CSNA meeting
- The option to subscribe to Advances in Data Analysis and Classification (ADAC) at a favorable rate

We look forward to your membership and participation in CSNA.

Dues are for calendar years. Please indicate year(s) for which dues are being paid. _____
